

Coherent Technical Services, Inc.

Excellence in technical services

Position Title:

Risk Manager

Job Description:

Performs technical planning, system integration, verification and validation, cost and risk, and supportability and effectiveness analyses for total systems. Prepares and coordinates the plans and schedules for new or existing programs. Analyzes effects of projects upon various areas such as Engineering, and Supportability IPTs to determine the most practical and cost-efficient methods to obtain the required resources. Coordinate, prioritize and schedule work within the members of the IPT to meet program and customer requirements.

Education:

Bachelors degree from an accredited college in a technical discipline, or equivalent experience/combined education.

Experience:

Individuals should possess five (5) or more years of experience in support of DoD or other US government agency programs/projects in the areas of PMA support.

Requires:

Excellent communication skills, both verbal and written and show leadership ability. Strong problem solving ability. Facilitates interpersonal relationships, resolves conflicts quickly and tactfully, and positively influences others. Familiarity with DOD standards and development is required. Familiarity with helicopter systems is desired. Experience in working schedules for complex/large organizations. Ability to take lead working with multiple customers, companies and organizations in the development of integrated cost and schedules. Capable of identifying schedule disconnects, taking action by calling meetings with required functions/personnel to negotiate actions necessary for effective resolution. Demonstrates ability to prepare status reports and metrics, make presentations as required. Demonstrates presentation skills to make schedule related presentations to senior management and customers.